

2005 CARLSBAD COMMUNITY ARTS GRANTS

ORGANIZATIONS/ARTIST PARTNERSHIPS

1) COAL (Carlsbad Oceanside Art League) $1,000

Demonstrations by Professional Artists: Nine visual arts demonstration workshops in Carlsbad, open to public and membership, currently above 300.

2) CARLSBAD PLAYHOUSE $2,000

Operating Support for 2005 Season: 6 to 8 rehearsed readings of diverse new and classic plays will be produced and presented in Schulman Auditorium or other local venues.

3) PATRONS OF THE ARTS (CARLSBAD COMMUNITY THEATRE) $1,250

Operating Support for 2005 Season Two productions, three or more workshops with showcase presentations, most at the Carlsbad Cultural Arts Center. Includes Carlsbad Youth Theatre programs and workshops for children and adults.

4) MUSEUM OF MAKING MUSIC $1,500

Support for Family Activity Day: Annual event celebrating a specific instrument – in 2005, the banjo. Concert with guest artists, children's performances, demonstrations, museum tours, etc.

5) CHILDREN'S DISCOVERY MUSEUM $1,500

Creative Corner materials: Weekly participatory art projects developed for family interaction or individual activity. Artist-led during peak hours.

6) CARLSBAD MUSIC FESTIVAL - HI-NOON ROTARY $2,700

Contemporary and classical chamber music festival featuring acclaimed young professional musicians originally from Carlsbad performing 3 concerts at Schulman Auditorium. and five days of educational programs.

7) SAN DIEGUITO PERFORMING ARTS ASSOCIATION $1,800

Support for 2005 concert series of five free, diverse concerts performed by professional and musicians and augmented by the North Coast Singers youth chorus.

9) PACIFIC COAST CONCERT BAND $1,250

Operating Support for 2005 Season: 12 to 15 concerts, 1/3 to 1/2 performed in Carlsbad, by an ensemble containing several Carlsbad players.

10) NEW VILLAGE ARTS $3,750

Fourth Annual Free "Shakespeare in the Park" 2005: Support for 9 free outdoor performances of a play by William Shakespeare, at a Carlsbad park or school grounds site.

TOTAL REQUESTED: $ 32,182 TOTAL AWARDED: $16,750

ARTS EDUCATION

1) CALAVERA HILLS ELEMENTARY SCHOOL $750

Continuation of a self-supporting after-school Theatre Club for as many students as possible (up to 100 in Spring 2005) culminating in a 3-performance production.

2) CARLSBAD HIGH SCHOOL DRAMA CLUB $500

Support for choreographer's fee: Annual musical production 12-week rehearsal program with 40 high school students.

3) CHS-ELL PROGRAM $1,000

Storytelling project for English Language Learners, using exposure to the arts and a residency by a storyteller and culminating in a storytelling performance in English by the students

4) AVIARA OAKS MIDDLE SCHOOL/JEAN ISAACS DANCE THEATRE $1,000

Support for a movement and storytelling project emphasizing children's literature classics, student poetry and dance crafted on words.

5) PACIFIC RIM ELEMENTARY SCHOOL $500

Support for 12-week in-class and after-school theater program for 3rd through 5th graders culminating in 3 performances of a play to be determined.

6) ST. PATRICK SCHOOL - PLAYWRIGHTS PROJECTS $1,000

Support for an 8-week playwriting program for students, culminating in two performances of students' short plays by professional actors. Teachers will receive two training workshops and take part in classroom sessions as part of the project.

7) LCC HIGH SCHOOL DANCE PROGRAM $500

Dance education residency by Mojalet Dance Collective for two 4-day sessions over Presidents Day break and summer for La Costa Canyon dance students.

8) CHS BAND BOOSTERS $500

Development of a feeder program for middle school students to transition to High School Color Guard, culminating in a free public performance at the Spring Middle Schools Band Concerts.

9) BUENA VISTA ELEMENTARY SCHOOL $500

Support for "Doorways to Education," artist-led mural project to design and paint murals on all BV classroom doors, involving the entire student body.

10) PLAYWRIGHTS PROJECT $1,000

Residency at Calavera Hills Middle School: Two seventh grade classes (including Special Ed. students) will participate in Write On! exploration of theatre as playwrights, culminating in two performances of students' short plays by professional actors.

TOTAL REQUESTED: $11,559

TOTAL AWARDED: $ 7,250

